The Pride of Heroes.

Many soldiers in the last war wrote to say that for scratches, bruises, cuts, wounds, corns, sore feet and stiff joints, Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the best in the world. Same for burns, scalds, boils, ulcers, skin eruptions and piles. It cures or no pay. Only 25c at Moseley's drug store.

The Railroad Commission, at a recent meeting held in Tallahassee, fined the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Co. on nine different counts, an aggregate of $7,000.

Favorite Family Remedy.

Frequently accidents occur in the household, which cause burns, cuts, sprains and bruises for use in such cases, Ballard's Snow Liniment has for many years been the constant favorite family remedy. 25c, 50c and $1.00 at D. G. Smith's.

Capt. Ira Mattair, of Carrabelle, who has charge of the Pickett fishery, made a catch at one strike Monday of three hundred barrels of mullet. He came to Carrabelle to hire all the men he could in order to save them.

Report From the Reform School

J. G. Gluck, Superintendent, Pruntytown, W. Va., writes: "After trying all other advertised medicines we have decided to use Foley's Honey and Tar exclusively in the West Virginia Reform School. I find it the most effective and absolutely harmless." Sold by D. G. Smith.

The profit of 1900 of the electric lighting plant owned by the city of Jacksonville was $25,582.44, on an investment of $75,000, a good argument in favor of municipal ownership.—Pensacola Journal.

A Boy's Life Saved from Malaria Cough.

C. W. Lynch, a prominent citizen of Winchester, Ind., writes, "My little boy had a severe attack of membranous croup, and only got relief after taking Foley's Honey and Tar. He got relief after one dose and I feel that it saved the life of my boy." Refuse substitutes. Sold by D. G. Smith.

At the Annual Encampment of the United Confederate Veterans held last week, at Tampa, St. Augustine was chosen as the next place for the encampment. It is said that at least 5,000 persons visited Tampa during the encampment.

A Million Voices

Could hardly express the thanks of Homer Hall, of West Point, La. Listen why: A severe cold had settled on his lungs, causing a most obstinate cough. Several physicians said he had consumption and writes—"It completely cured me and saved my life. I now weigh 227 lbs." It's positively guaranteed for coughs, colds and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at Moseley's drug store.

A hundred acre peach orchard is to be set out near Palmer by a party of Gainesville and New York capitalists, represented by J. D. Stringfellow of Gainesville. They have bought 400 acres of land west of Palmer on the Seaboard Air Line, that is now covered with fine timber.

Coughs, Colds and Constipation.

Few people realize when taking cough medicines other than Foley's Honey and Tar, that they contain opiates which are constipating besides being unsafe, particularly for children. Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates, is safe and sure and will not constipate. Sold by D. G. Smith.

A press dispatch from Pensacola says: The United States grand jury here returned an indictment yesterday against Joel E. Smith, former editor of the Monticello Constitution and the Reporter at Monticello, Fla., for fraudulent use of the mails.

He Found A Cure.

R. H. Foster, 318 S. 2d street, Salt Lake City, writes: "I have been bothered with dyspepsia or indigestion for 21 years, have tried many doctors without relief, but I have found a cure in Herbine. I recommend it to all my friends, who are afflicted that way, and it is curing them, too. 50c at D. G. Smith's."

Sheriff Smith, at Pensacola, Sunday, was the temporary owner of "spitfire" and "McKinley," the lions of the Gaskill Mundy Carnival Company. The sheriff assumed charge through the service of an attachment writ, sworn out by fifteen negro laborers, who alleged that the show was indebted to them about $65. The show gave bond, and was allowed to leave for New Orleans.

Ballard's Horehound Syrup

Immediately relieves hoarse, croupy cough, oppressed, rattling, rasping and difficult breathing. Henry C. Stearns, druggist, Shullsburg, Wisconsin, writes, May 20, 1901: "I have been selling Ballard's Horehound Syrup for two years, and have never had a preparation that has given better satisfaction. I notice that when I sell a bottle, they come back for more. I can honestly recommend it. 25c, 50c and $1.00 at D. G. Smith's."

Hamilton county, Florida, now comes to the front with the oldest inhabitant of the State, Mrs. Patience Richardson, 105 years of age. Dad county also claims a Confederate veteran, M. C. Reed, 83 years of age. He fought with Pickett's immortal division of the Fifty-fifth Virginia. He is still hale and hearty, and does a great deal of work.

A. J. Snell wanted to attend a party, but was afraid to do so on account of pains in his stomach, which he feared would grow worse. He says, "I was telling my troubles to a lady friend, who said: 'Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy will put you in condition for the party.' I bought a bottle and take pleasure in stating that two doses cured me and enabled me to have a good time at the party." Mr. Snell is a resident of Sumner Hill, N. Y. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

A few gentlemen have organized the Historical Society of Florida by electing George R. Fairbanks of Fernandina, chairman, and selecting G. W. Wilson, F. P. Fleming, Hy Robinson and Rev. V. W. Shields of Jacksonville; Dr. J. F. Forbes of Deland, and J. F. Welborn of Sanford, as a committee to prepare and present a draft of the by-laws and constitution.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.

Digests all classes of food, tones and strengthens the stomach and digestive organs. Cures dyspepsia, indigestion, stomach troubles, and makes rich red blood, health and strength. Kodol rebuilds worn-out tissues, purifies, strengthens and sweetens the stomach. Gov. G. W. Atkinson, of W. Va., says: "I have used a number of bottles of Kodol and have found it to be a very effective and, indeed, a powerful remedy for stomach troubles. I commend it to my friends." W. E. Davis.

COUGHS AND COLDS IN CHILDREN

Recommendation of a Well Known Chicago Physician.

I use and prescribe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for almost all obstinate, constricted coughs, with direct results. I prescribe it to children of all ages. Am glad to recommend it to all in need and seeking relief from colds and coughs and bronchial affections. It is non-narcotic and safe in the hands of the most unprofessional. A universal panacea for all mankind.—Mrs. Mary R. Melendy, M. D., Ph. D., Chicago, Ill. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

Kissimmee, Nov. 29.—The search for timber, turpentine locations and grazing land is quite active. Small holdings are being consolidated with larger tracts, and they in turn developed and their value coined into money. The evolution is steadily going on, and the results will doubtless very much improve and benefit south Florida.

What's In A Name.

Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. E. C. DeWitt & Co. of Chicago, discovered, some years ago, how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a specific for piles. For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles, eczema, cuts, burns, bruises and all skin diseases DeWitt's Salve has no equal. This has given rise to numerous worthless counterfeits. Ask for DeWitt's—the genuine. W. B. Davis.

The railroad commission has sent out notice to the railroads doing business in the state, notifying them that a meeting will be held in this city on December 5, for the purpose of considering any arguments, suggestions, objections and amendments the railroads may wish to make in reference to the proposed changes in the rules and regulations governing the transportation of freight on the railroads and common carriers of the state.—Capital.

A Good Cough Medicine.

[From the Gazette, Townsboro, Australia.] I find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is an excellent medicine. I have been suffering from a severe cough for the last two months, and it has effected a cure. I have great pleasure in recommending it.—W. C. WICKNER. This is the opinion of one of our oldest and most respected residents, and has been voluntarily given in good faith that others may try the remedy and be benefited, as was Mr. Wickner. This remedy is sold by all druggists.

The work of cleaning up the grounds around the capitol building has begun. The dead trees that have been an eye sore in what should be the most attractive spot in the city are being removed and the rubbish of brick and lumber which now litter the whole square is being carted away. The grounds are to be terraced and an attempt will be made to have them present an appearance worthy of the Capital City.—Tallahasseean.

If you feel ill and need a pill Why not purchase the best? DeWitt's Early Risers Are little surprises, Take one—they do the rest. W. H. Howell, Houston, Tex., writes: "I have used Little Early Riser, Pills in my family for constipation, sick headache, etc. To their use I am indebted for the health of my family." W. B. Davis.

Ocala, Nov. 29.—Thursday afternoon Cranford, the little three-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Stanley, while striking matches, dropped one of them into his lap. His clothes quickly ignited, and before his mother, who was downstairs, could reach him he was very badly burned about the legs, breast, neck and face. While the burns are very serious, it is hoped that they will not prove fatal.

Saved At Grave's Brink.

"I know I would long ago have been in my grave," writes Mrs. S. H. Newton, of Decatur, Ala., "if it had not been for Electric Bitters. For three years I suffered untold agony from the worst forms of indigestion, waterbrash, stomach and bowel dyspepsia. But this excellent medicine did me a world of good. Since using it I can eat heartily and have gained 35 pounds." For indigestion, loss of appetite, stomach, liver and kidney troubles Electric Bitters are a positive, guaranteed cure. Only at our Moseley's drug store.

Coughing Spell Caused Death.

"Perry Duckwell, aged 25 years, choked to death early yesterday morning at his home, in the presence of his wife and child. He contracted a slight cold a few days ago and paid but little attention to it. Yesterday morning he was seized with a fit of coughing which continued for some time. His wife sent for a physician, but before he could arrive another coughing spell came on and Duckwell died from suffocation.—St. Louis Globe Democrat, Dec. 1, 1901." Ballard's Horehound Syrup would have saved him. 35c, 50c and $1.00 at D. G. Smith's.

Mr. Ezekiel McCoy, of Live Oak, was here Sunday to see his wife, who has been very sick at her mother's home—Mrs. Annie Fucher—and found her improving.

Union Thanksgiving service was held at the Baptist church on last Thursday, the sermon being preached by Rev. A. E. Osgood, pastor of the A. M. E. church.

The editor of the New Enterprise having donated a column of his paper each week for the use of the colored people, it is intended to make this a feature of the paper hereafter. Rev. A. E. Osgood will act in the capacity of reporter, and all news items concerning the colored people should be told to him in time to get them in on Monday for the paper of that week.

A Thousand Dollars Worth of Good.

A. H. Thurnes, a well known coal operator of Buffalo, O., writes, "I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel or stones with excruciating pain. I got no relief from medicines until I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure, then the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick dust like fine stones, and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man. It has done me a $1000 worth of good." Sold by D. G. Smith.
